

HONORARY LIFETIME AWARD

Bob Brosamer
Brosamer & Wall, Inc.

Recognition by your peers is gratifying, but recognition for your team is the most important. Awards of this sort are a product of combined energy.

Q: What is the value of involvement in United Contractors that you would like to convey to others?

A: The United Contractors commitment to partnering with the Construction Trades recognizes the value of a trained and dedicated work force. I am proud of my part in playing it forward. ■

Q: Is there a mentor(s) that shaped your career, philosophy, or work values?

A: My father preached the nobility of the working man and my first mentor, Gordon Ball, pointed out that it is not necessary to be the smartest man in the room. Their guidance let me ride on the shoulders of the remarkable talent that built our work over the years

About Robert “Bob” Brosamer:

Mr. Robert (Bob) Brosamer has over 50 years of heavy civil construction experience and was a founder of Ball, Ball, and Brosamer Inc. In 1972, they were a major Caltrans contractor until 1992 when a European company assumed ownership.

In 1995, Mr. Brosamer resumed building public works projects with a new firm, R&L Brosamer, Inc. Bob was then invited to serve on the Caltrans/California AGC Liaison Committee.

In 2014, Mr. Brosamer launched a new firm, Brosamer & Wall, Inc. in partnership with Mr. Charles Wall.

HONORARY LIFETIME AWARD

Recognized as an innovator, mentor, and respected industry influencer, including Board of Directors service to UCON and leadership and advocacy that made a significant difference to many, Bob Brosamer is the recipient of the highest honor granted on a very limited basis to those who have served the industry.
